AN ACT

For the relief of Ernest Morris.

August 30, 1961
[H. R. 1290]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Ernest Morris is hereby relieved of liability to the United States in the amount of $1,788.80, the amount in which he was paid salary payments in violation of the Act of July 31, 1894 (28 Stat. 205) as amended, during the period September 22, 1958, through January 26, 1959. Ernest Morris was erroneously advised by agents of the United States at the time of his employment as an operating engineer by the General Services Administration in September 1958 that such section 212 was not applicable in his case. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for any amount for which liability is relieved by this Act.

Ernest Morris.

5 USC 62.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Ernest Morris, an amount equal to the aggregate of the amounts paid by him, or withheld from sums otherwise due him, in complete or partial satisfaction of the liability to the United States specified in the first section: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 30, 1961.

AN ACT

For the relief of Mr. Ernest Hay, Wamego, Kansas.

August 30, 1961
[H. R. 1612]

Ernest Hay.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $57.59, to Ernest Hay, Wamego, Kansas, in full settlement of his claims against the United States for reimbursement of the amount of expenses and other losses and damages occurred in resettlement as a result of his displacement in connection with the acquisition of land (trace numbered 779) due to the construction of Tuttle Creek Dam and Reservoir project, Kansas: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved August 30, 1961.

Private Law 87-169

AN ACT

For the relief of Captain Leon B. Ketchum.

August 30, 1961
[H. R. 2656]

Capt. Leon B.
Ketchum.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Captain Leon B. Ketchum, Army of the United States, retired (service number O162966), is relieved of liability to pay to the United States the sum of $1,422.75, which sum represents the balance due the United States on account of an overpayment of retired pay in the amount of $1,907.15 during the period beginning October 1, 1949, and ending December 31, 1958, both dates inclusive. In the audit and settlement of the accounts of any certifying or disbursing officer of the United States, credit shall be given for the amount for which liability is relieved by this section.
